SUSPECT HELD IN MILROY THEFT

Harry Willard, Known as "Enoch Arden," Arrested After Bloodhounds follow Trail to his Door.

DENIES HE IS IMPLICATED

Milroy People Believe That if He is Guilty, He was Only Tool of Gang Who Did Work.

FINGER PRINTS ARE TAKEN

He is Charged With Burglarizing Patton's Store—Mysterious Disappearance Recalled.

Harry Willard, age 58, is held in jail here specifically charged with the robbery of the John E. Patton store in Milroy. Willard is a resident of Milroy and the looting of the three places Saturday morning was laid directly to him by the bloodhounds, which were brought to Milroy late Saturday evening from Bedford.

The work of the bloodhounds was a sensation in that three different starts were made from the business houses that were robbed and in each case the trail led to the door of the Willard home, which is in the northern part of Milroy. On the strength of the bloodhounds trailing Mr. Patton believed he was justified in filing charges against Willard. The Milroy people came here Sunday morning about two o'clock and the affidavit was signed and a search warrant issued.

Sheriff Cavitt and Prosecutor Stevens went directly to Milroy and Willard was lodged in jail here about four o'clock Sunday morning. He denied all knowledge of the crime and while he would not talk very freely, stated that he knew nothing concerning the robbery and could not explain the action of the dogs in following a trail to his home. His wife was as much surprised as Willard appeared to be, and stated that "it was a good joke on Milroy."

Using the search warrant issued by Clerk Taylor, Sheriff Cavitt searched the Willard home, but could find nothing that would serve as evidence against him. Since a number of cigars were taken from the Greer-Wilkinson lumber company's office, it was thought probably that Willard, if he was guilty, had some of these cigars, but none were to be found. The charge against him is burglary and his bond was placed at $1,000, which he has been unable to secure.

The work of the bloodhounds was watched by a large and curious crowd. The trial established by the dogs would indicate that the Meek and Spillman store was entered first. The dogs were first started at this store and easily picked up a trail, which led to the Patton store. From the Patton store the trail led to the Willard home. Three different starts were made from as many different places and each time the trial led to the home of Willard.

Since Saturday it has developed that the Bosley elevator was also entered but nothing of value was

BUGGY HITS HORSE'S HEELS

Howard Stout Narrowly Escapes Injury in Runaway Today.

A horse driven by Howard Stout and hitched to a storm buggy became frightened when the buggy ran up on it while coming down the Main street hill this morning and made a wild dash. The harness was minus the holdback straps and the buggy was allowed to run down on the horse. Mr. Stout was unable to get out of the buggy, but escaped injury. One side of the shafts was broken, and when stopped south of the Fair street the horse was free from the buggy.

FEBRUARY 5 LAST DAY FOR FILING

Attorney General Makes Ruling on State-Wide Primary Law Concerning Petitions.

THOUGHT TO BE FEBRUARY 7

Although it was generally believed here, according to a construction placed on the law, that candidates for congressional, legislative, judicial, county and township offices had until and including February 7, an opinion from the state attorney-general, Evan Stotsenburg, to Homer L. Cook, secretary of state, say that candidates for these nominations on the various tickets will have to have their petitions on file by the time for the close of business February 5. A petition filed on February 7 will not allow the candidate's name to be placed on the primary ballot and February 6 falls on Sunday so that February 5 will be the last day.

The law says candidates for the class of offices mentioned must file their petitions not later than thirty days before the day of the primary nor earlier than sixty days. All candidates for president, vice-president, senator and governor got their petitions into the secretary of state's office in Indianapolis Friday, when the time expired for their filing.

PUNCH BOARDS ALL OUT OF SIGHT TODAY

Last Game of Rhum for Checks is Also Played Following Orders From the Mayor.

SIMILAR EDICTS ELSEWHERE

Rhum games and punch boards were a thing of the past in Rushville today. They disappeared as if by magic Sunday night, following an order issued by Mayor Bebout the latter part of last week that they should all be stopped by Monday. Rhum games had become the chief pastime in Rushville in most cigar stores and pool rooms. The punch board was almost a fixture in many places of business.

Opposition to the punch boards has been aroused in several Indiana cities lately. Only recently an order went forth in Indianapolis prohibiting the boards. By some strange coincidence, punch boards were not allowed in Newcastle after today, either. The Newcastle Courier says Mayor Watkins gave merchants until Monday to get rid of them.

SPOUSES MEET WITH TROUBLE

Jasper Dudgeon of Glenwood is Cited For Contempt For Failure to Appear in Court.

GIVEN TIME TO PAY $60 BACK

Similar Proceedings Are Started Against G. W. Cassady, Whose Wife is Asking for Divorce.

Failure to pay support money for his children as provided in a divorce decree resulted in Jasper Dudgeon of Glenwood getting a severe lecture in circuit court today. He was cited for contempt of court. Dudgeon was ordered to appear at nine o'clock this morning and when he failed to put in an appearance an attachment was issued to the sheriff for him and he was brought into court under arrest.

Dudgeon owes his divorced wife $60 in back pay and told the court that he had been unable to find work. It was decided to give him a reasonable time to find work and then if he made no effort to pay the alimony the court will send him to jail. Mrs. Dudgeon was in court, appearing against her one-time husband. She interrupted the court several times and on one of these occasions told Judge Sparks he might send Dudgeon up to her house and let him help her with the nine washings a week that she was now turning out.

A proceeding similar to the Dudgeon case was started in court this morning when Mrs. Della Cassady filed a motion to cite George Woodford Cassady to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. Mrs. Cassady is suing him for divorce and the court has ordered the defendant to pay her the sum of $25 a month support money and $20 attorney fees. The motion this morning stated that he has paid only half of the attorney fee and owes her the sum of $12.50. Judge Sparks appointed Raymond Springer as special judge in this case and the contempt proceedings will probably be taken up by him. Three names were suggested and each side struck out one, leaving the name of Judge Springer.

Harry McManus was appointed guardian for Carl McManus by the court this morning. Carl McManus is now an inmate of the Madison insane asylum. The bond of the guardian in the sum of $7,000 was approved by the court.

The trial of George Coleman, charged with wife desertion will be held Thursday. Coleman was arrested Saturday. The charge against him was filed by his wife, Mary E. Coleman. Coleman is the man who succeeded in escaping arrest about a month ago by running from Deputy Sheriff Sullivan.

LONTZ MAY YET ENTER THE RACE

Wayne County Democrats Are Hopeful of Persuading Richmond Man to Oppose Finly Gray.

DESPITE RECENT REFUSAL

On the heels of the announcement that John M. Lontz, Richmond manufacturer, had refused to oppose Finly Gray in the primaries and that Wayne county Democrats might center their efforts on Samuel L. Trabue of this city comes the announcement that Mr. Lontz may yet be induced to "take it back" and enter the race as a candidate for the democratic nomination for congress.

Mr. Trabue let it be known Saturday that he is in a receptive frame of mind although he has not fully determined that he would make the race even if he were more urgently requested to than he has been. Lontz's popularity with Wayne county Democrats was attested at the democratic meeting in Wayne county last Friday night when John A. M. Adair spoke.

One of the big features of the Cambridge City meeting was the reception for Mr. Lontz and practically every Democrat present who knew him or was introduced appealed to him to become a candidate. Mr. Lontz laughed away all of the urgings.

"I have some very strong reasons for not becoming a candidate and I assure you that I feel deeply your kindness in urging me to become a candidate," Mr. Lontz told them. "You do know what a sore heart I had when I sent that telegram of refusal to Mr. Harper." Mr. Lontz was in close conference with Mr. Adair during the evening and was prominent throughout the program and developments following it.

It is believed that Mr. Lontz can be prevailed upon to cast aside his objections and become the candidate. It is said that if Mr. Lontz becomes a candidate, Finly Gray of Connersville will not seek re-election. Mr. Adair talked with Mr. Gray and did not know whether he plans to seek the nomination.

Many party leaders, however, are still hopeful of inducing Mr. Lontz to enter the congressional contest and say that they are prepared to bring even greater pressure to bear on him to bend him to their wishes. It was a remarkable fact that among the large crowd of active party workers assembled at Cambridge not one man was heard to lift his voice in advocacy of the renomination of Finly H. Lontz, according to Richmond Gray, who, at the present time is the only candidate for the congressional newspapers.

Quite a few Democrats, who believe there is no chance of inducing Mr. Lontz to enter the contest, were mentioning Friday night, the name of Lawrence Bertsch of Cambridge City, one of Wayne county's most successful young businessmen, as an acceptable candidate for Wayne county to enter in the congressional contest.

Mr. Bertsch, who is vice president of the Bertsch Machine Manufacturing company of Cambridge City, says that he is willing to enter the contest if his candidacy would be acceptable to Wayne county Democracy. If there is a chance of his candidacy disturbing the harmonious unity of the party organization, he said Friday night, he will give no further consideration to the matter.

Special sermons were preached by most of the ministers.

SHERIFF GETS IN ON A COCK FIGHT

Noblesville Officer Prepares to Serve Affidavits After Witnessing Some Big Money Change Hands.

58 GAME COCKS ON GROUNDS

(By United Press.)

Noblesville, Ind., Jan. 10.—Sheriff Waddell was preparing today to make arrests on warrants that grew out of what is said to have been one of the most elaborate cock fights ever staged in Indiana. The warrants charge the unlawful possession of liquor and conducting cocking main at Cicero.

Sheriff Waddell and a deputy witnessed the fight several minutes before they were detected. The crowd then quickly dispersed.

Fifty-eight game cocks were on hand, the birds having been shipped in from Kentucky, Ohio, Muncie and Chicago.

Big money was changing hands when the sheriff arrived, he said. The sports dashed for their cars and the large pavillion at Magnetic Springs was soon dark after the raid.

PLANS APPEAL TO THE COUNTRY

President Wilson Will Ask People to Lend Moral Support to Preparedness Program.

TO MAKE ADDRESS JANUARY 27

Faces Embarrassing Situation With House Leader Openly Opposed and Senate Leader Partially So.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 10.—President Wilson, taking personal charge of the battle for preparedness, will appeal to the country soon to lend its moral support to this fight. Unsatisfactory reports from administration supporters in congress on the situation has led to the determination of the president. His first address to the public probably will be January 27 either at Baltimore or New York City. Preparedness will be his program.

Tomorrow the president will confer with Chairman Hay of the house military affairs committee. He will ask for details as to the status of the fight.

The administration is faced with an embarrassing situation in congress in addition to the fact that Democratic representatives report that the rank and file of the party from the central states are opposed to the program, the floor-leaders, both branches are not actively supporting it.

Kitchen in the house is openly opposed. Friends of Senator Kern, the Democratic leader, say he is "uncertain" as to just what he will do. Kern's strongest statement has been that generally speaking he will support the program but that as to just which of the various plans proposed he will favor he has not determined.

This attitude has not advanced preparedness plans in the senate any further than in the house where the majority leader is against it.

THOSE THAT HAVE-GET BY WESTON

ROADS IN CHINA.

They Remind One Very Much of the Snakes in Ireland.

BECAUSE THERE ARE NONE.

What Apologies There Are For Them Are a Great Deal Like the Bed of a Stone Quarry—The Torture That Goes With a Trip in a Peking Cart.

Describing the roads, or, rather, the lack of roads, in China and the torture that is undergone by the tourist who, used to the luxurious modes of travel we may employ, trusts himself to the uncertain joys of a trip in a Peking chair, a writer in the Wide World Magazine says:

"Now, a Peking cart is a very venerable mode of progression. When our ancestors were lightly dressed in wood and had no conception of any wheeled vehicle the Chinese lady was paying her calls in the back of a Peking cart, the seat of honor under the tilt, well out of sight of the passers by, while her servant sat in front, the place of comfort, if such a word can be applied to anything pertaining to a Peking cart.

"In spite of its long and aristocratic record if there is any mode of progression more wearying and uncomfortable I have not met it. It is simply a springless board set on a couple of wheels with a wagon tilt of blue cotton over it and a place for heavy luggage behind. The Chinaman sits on the floor and does not seem to mind, but the ordinary westerner, like myself, packs his bedding and all the cushions he can beg or borrow around him and then resigns himself to his fate.

"The Peking cart has one advantage. People will tell you—it has nothing to break in it. But there are moments when it would be a mighty relief if something did break, for if the wood-work holds together as it tosses you from side to side you yourself are one sore, bruised mass. No; I cannot recommend a Peking cart, even on the smoothest road.

"And the roads in China are not smooth. We all know the description of the snakes in Ireland. 'There are none,' and much the same might be said about the roads in China. There are so called roads, certainly, upon which the people move about, but I have seldom met one that was any better than the surrounding country, and very, very often on this journey I met roads where it was ease and luxury to move off them on to the neighboring plowed field.

"The recipe for a road there in the north seems to be: Take a piece of the country that is really too bad to plow or to use for any agricultural purpose whatever, that a mountain torrent, in fact, has given up as too much for the water, upset a stone wall over it—a stone wall with good, large stones in it—take care they never for a moment lie evenly, and you have your road.

"Leaving Peking for the eastern tombs, you go for the first two or three hours along a paved way of magnificent proportions planned and laid out as a highway should be. The great stones with which it is paved were probably put there by slave labor, how many hundred years ago I do not know, but the blocks are uneven now, some of them are gone altogether, though how a huge block of stone could possibly disappear passes my understanding, and whenever the carter could he took the cart down beside the road, where at least the dust made a cushion for the nail studded wheels, and the jarring and the jolting were not quite so terrible.

"It takes as long to get beyond the environs of Peking in a cart as it does to get out of London in a motorcar. First we passed through the Babylonish gate, and the great walls were behind us; then, outside the city, all looking dusty, dirty and khaki colored in the brilliant sunshine, were numerous small houses, and the wayside was lined with booths on which were things for sale.

"Along the roadway came an endless array of people, clad for the most part in blue cotton—men walking, men with loads slung from a bamboo across their shoulders, donkeys laden with baskets or sacks of grain, with fat Chinese on their backs. There were Peking carts, there were mules, there were ponies, and this busy throng is almost the same as it was a couple of thousand years ago.

"But it was a long, long while before I could feel I was really in the country. There was the khaki colored land, there were the khaki colored houses, built of mud apparently, with graceful tiled roofs, and blue clad people everywhere and everywhere at work.

"Always the fields were most beautifully tilled. There were no fences. The Chinese are too civilized to need fences, and when you see stone walls it is only because, since they can't be dropped off the planet into space, the stones must be disposed of somehow."

Paris For Politeness.

Translated rather crudely and literally, this is the notice in a Paris trolley car: "Messieurs the passengers descending from the carriage are urged (literally "prayed"), before renouncing the shelter which the carriage they are about to quit offers them, to assure themselves, as a preliminary, that no carriage coming in the opposite direction is in proximity."

Animals at Play.

"That the lower animals do not laugh, that they have no sense of humor, is hard to understand when we think how thoroughly they love to play. From the highest to the humblest they show the keenest joy in sport, but they cannot laugh. If they could perhaps the power would bring with it other mental gifts, such as to upset the whole order of things. Be that as it may, the watcher of wild life never gets used to the sight of their mirthless sport, for in all other respects their play is entirely human.

"A great deal of human play is serious—desperately serious on the football field and at the card table, especially when a lonely player at solitaire, for instance, is trying to 'kill time.'

"I have watched a great ungainly hippopotamus trying by the hour to do the same solemn thing—cuffing a croquet ball back and forth from one end of his cage to the other. His keepers said that without the plaything the poor caged giant would fret and worry himself to death. It was his game of solitaire."—Dallas Lore Sharp in St. Nicholas.

Famous Dams.

The construction of the gigantic storage wall, known as the Burrinuck dam, the most interesting part of the New South Wales irrigation scheme, was a clever piece of engineering work. Indeed, it ranks as one of the greatest dams in the world, both in regard to height and volume of water impounded. It is 236 feet high, 168 feet thick at the base, tapering to 18 feet at the top and some 780 feet in length. The famous dam at Assuan, on the Nile, has a total height of only 156 feet, while the great Croton and Roosevelt dams in America eclipse the Burrinuck structure by only a few feet. It is a massive wall of concrete over thirty feet higher than the London monument. This colossal structure, however, had to be built across the bed of a river subjected to floods, in a deep gorge whose sides were so steep that it was impossible to establish workshops upon them.—London Mail.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

It is Painful.

The dilemma of the Progressive party in Indiana is becoming painful. It should be embarrassing to E. M. Lee, former Lawrenceburg undertaker who got $20,000 from George Perkins to bury out here in Indiana. Lee has had his tilt with Jackson Boyd of Greencastle, former state chairman who was shoved out of the way to make room for Lee, and when he went to Richmond last Saturday to attend a meeting of the Wayne county Progressive committee, he stepped right into another hot-bed of ecclesiasticalism.

Rudolph Leeds, publisher of the Richmond palladium and national committeeman from Indiana, resigned and made a statement to the Wayne county committee that the Progressive party was on the downgrade and that he proposed to support James Goodrich, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. Leeds said the condition of the Progressive party was due to the mismanagement of its leaders, which does not speak well for Leeds because he has been national committeeman from Indiana since the party's inception.

State Chairman Lee said that he did not want to enter the campaign with the banner Bull Moose county of the United States out of the running. Naturally enough, but no sooner were the words spoken than Leeds resigned as national committeeman and Roy Fry resigned as secretary of the county committee. A few weeks ago a member of the Wayne county board of commissioners who was elected on the Bull Moose ticket in 1912 announced that he had left the party and would seek renomination and re-election on the Republican ticket.

But the defection in Wayne county will not worry Mr. Lee. He has greater breakers ahead. Jackson Boyd, who Lee says is a good lawyer and writes poetry but has no more judgment about politics than a school boy, is continually stirring up trouble by giving out statements about Lee Hanlyzing the party.

The Hanlyzing process seems to have been accomplished. Lee has "wished" the apparently unpopular Hanly on the party by making him candidate for governor. Hanly won't play unless they play his way. That is to say, Hanly will not continue as the Bull Moose candidate for governor unless the Bull Moose state convention leaves the initiative, referendum and recall plank out of the platform. Progressives who take themselves seriously stood aghast when they heard of the agreement between Hanly and Lee. With Hanly it's prohibition first and come what may afterwards.

The Progressive party may not expect any support from the Prohibition party. A statement from the state committee of the latter party says that the party will make its own fight and that there will be no amalgamation with the Bull Moosers. The Anti-Saloon League is through with Hanly, to all intents and purposes, judging from the dispute during the omni-partisan convention in Indianapolis recently when Hanly proposed to start a new party if neither of the old parties would accept the prohibition propaganda.

The quest of the state chairman for a candidate for United States senator was equally disastrous. William Dudley Foulke of Richmond, who consented to seek that nomination on the Progressive ticket, promptly withdrew when he learned of the agreement between Lee and Hanly. Then Lee began a "still" hunt for a candidate as he had not many days left in which to procure the consent of someone and file their petition according to the provisions of the primary law.

Judge Wilson of Bloomington evidently jumped for the "honor." By jumping or otherwise, he caught it. His position is all the more ridiculous, for he not only accepted the offer of Lee to become the candidate after Foulke had declined it publicly, giving his reasons, but also, notwithstanding the fact that he had announced about three weeks ago that he had forsaken the Bull Moose party and had returned to the Republican party. Judge Wilson must have forgotten that newspaper files were preserved and that people still had memories.

Meanwhile, what are Mr. Lee and his party going to do for a candidate for governor if Hanly does as he threatens to do and the state convention does not abide by the agreement between Lee and Hanly? The time has elapsed for filing petitions to get another candidate's name on the primary ballot. If the state convention declares for the initiative, referendum and recall, Hanly will resign. The primary law does not provide for the nomination of an eleventh-hour candidate under any circumstances. There you are. Unravel the mystery for yourself.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.)

Sons of Liberty "Mummery."

A contemporary speaks of the ritual and procedure of this secret political society as "a strange medley of blasphemy and innocence, past credulity." "Who can imagine a man of reasonable sense would stand up after the three mysterious raps at the subterranean wicket and hear his sponsor, in answer to the sepulchral, 'Who cometh? Who cometh? Who cometh?' gravely respond, 'A citizen we found in the hands of despotism, bound and well nigh crushed to death beneath their oppression.' This was the initiation of the 'Sons of Liberty' standing in the 'vestibule of the temple,' the right hand under the left arm, the left arm under the right arm, or with his hands crossed over his bowels representing the belt of Orion."

Work of the Ground Mole.

There is a popular belief that the ground mole is a destructive animal. Like many popular beliefs this cannot be substantiated by facts. Ground moles do not feed upon roots and are not destructive. The ground mole is a subterranean animal. It builds its nest, rears its young and hunts its prey beneath the earth. It is well adapted to its subterranean life, the shape of its body being cylindrical, gradually tapering to a point at the extremity of its nose. Ground moles visit only those localities where the earth is infested with insect life. Where they are numerous the ground is interlaced with "runs" or passageways that lead from one feeding ground to another. These little animals deserve protection because they prey upon all kinds of underground insects, among which are the larvae of some of the most injurious insects which pass their pupa or chrysalis stage beneath the earth.—Country Life in America.

The Remedy For Anger.

The greatest remedy for anger is delay; beg anger to grant you this at the first, not in order that it may pardon the offense, but that it may form a right judgment about it; if it delays it will come to an end. Do not attempt to quell it all at once, for its first impulses are fierce; by plucking away its parts we shall remove the whole. We are made angry by some things which we learn at second hand and by some things which we ourselves hear or see. Now, we ought to be slow to believe what is told us. * * * If you were about to give sentence in court about ever so small a sum of money you would take nothing as proved without a witness, and a witness would count for nothing except on his oath. You would allow both sides to be heard; you would allow them time.—Seneca.

Fire in a Cotton Bale.

Kerosene oil has been used successfully to extinguish fire in baled cotton. A cotton bale is subjected to a very heavy pressure. Water will penetrate it but an inch or so, whereas kerosene will go clear to the center. A fire in a cotton bale does not blaze, but simply smolders and eats its way into the bale. At the comparatively low temperature at which cotton burns, and where there is no flame, kerosene does not ignite, but smotherers or extinguishes the slow, creeping fire. After the fire is extinguished the bands are removed from the bale and burned portions of the cotton stripped off. It is said that the use of kerosene has practically no detrimental effect on the cotton, and after it has been spread out and aired for a few days all odor of the oil disappears.—Argonaut.

Colored Evidence.

A well known lawyer was trying to make clear to a legal student the significance of the term "colored evidence," meaning that evidence which has been tampered with. "The best illustration I can think of came within my observation not long ago," said the lawyer. "A physician had said to a fair patient: 'Madam, you are a little run down. You need frequent baths and plenty of fresh air, and I advise you to dress in the coolest, most comfortable clothes; nothing stiff or formal.' 'When the lady got home this is how she rendered to her husband the advice given to her by the doctor: 'He says I must go to the seashore, do plenty of motoring and get some new summer gowns.'—New York Times.

BAKING COMPANY TO BE FORMED HERE

Rushville Baking Company Will Supplant Talbert Home Bakery in McClaren Street.

CAPITAL STOCK TO BE $8,000

It was announced today that a stock company would be formed to back a modern and up-to-date bakery in Rushville. The company will be incorporated for $8,000 and will be known as the Rushville Baking company. It will take over the holdings of the Talbert home bakery, in McClaren street, which was established by W. W. Weakly of Shelbyville several years ago. The stock will all be common and will sell for twenty-five dollars a share. Mr. Weakly will assist in the organization.

The Talbert home bakery will be remodeled and put in shape for first-class bread baking. It was stated that the new company expects to meet the demands of local bread users and that it will have the support of Rushville grocers.

IS SPRING COMING.

If someone wants to know if spring is coming, ask some section men on the Big Four railroad, for Saturday afternoon they killed a water moccasin snake about a half mile south of the Rushville station. The snake was four and a half feet long and the men are willing to make affidavit to that effect. The varmint was dragged from a tile drain.

IT'S THREE YEARS OLD

But Mrs. Reynolds Says It's Just as Good Today as When It Was First Made.

Three years ago Mrs. Reynolds testified to complete relief from kidney ills.

She now says that there has not been the slightest return of the trouble.

Rushville sufferers will take a deal of comfort in Mrs. Reynolds' statement.

Read what she says:

Mrs. B. W. Reynolds 620 West Fifth street, Rushville says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are an excellent medicine and do all they are advertised to do. When we use Doan's Kidney Pills in our family, they proved very beneficial."

The above statement was given July 27, 1912, and on Aug. 26, 1915, Mrs. Reynolds said: "Doan's Kidney Pills were of great help to me when I used them and the cure they brought me has proven permanent. I gladly confirm my former endorsement."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Reynolds has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

A Suggestive Argument in Favor of Preparedness

The present session of congress will be the most important in its scope since the civil war.

Millions will be appropriated for defense. The traditional policies of the government will probably be revolutionized.

The Army and Navy will have more money at its disposal during the next few years than ever before during time of peace. Our diplomatic relations with some of the countries at war may be suspended at any time, War may possibly follow such action on our part.

Peace May Be Declared during the new year between the countries now at war, and it is assumed that the United States will become the chief arbitrator, if it is able to remain neutral until such time.

Mexico is in a reconstructive period, and continues to make history of the most pitiful type.

The National Conventions Will be Held in June

This is presidential year. President Wilson will probably be endorsed again by the Democrats and be renominated. Who the Republican candidate will be is yet a matter of speculation.

These are only a few of the big things the leading newspapers of the country will tell about. In the meantime all the news of interest to the home and to women and children is not to be neglected.

Everybody Should be Prepared to keep posted on these all-important events and no American citizen should remain in ignorance of what is going on. No person can expect to keep posted on the affairs of the big wide world unless he reads a metropolitan newspaper. The local paper, which gives him the items from his immediate neighborhood covers its field, which is from force of circumstances, confined to a small radius.

The Indianapolis News

has every existing facility for gathering news. It is a client of the two great press associations, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS and THE UNITED PRESS, which cover every part of the globe.

Its Washington bureau is manned by an experienced staff of writers, and in the state of Indiana, there are over 800 correspondents, covering practically every hamlet, town and city.

Subscription Offer.

Your subscription is desired. We will send our State Edition one year by mail, postage paid, for THREE DOLLARS, if order is received prior to February 15, we will extend the subscription for one additional month, making 13 months in all.

Orders at this rate are accepted only from people who live on rural routes, or other remote localities, where THE NEWS can not be delivered by agent. In cities and towns our agents and carriers will make delivery at the regular rate of 10 cents a week.

Orders may be given to any agent, postmaster, newsdealer or subscription solicitor, but it is suggested that they be sent direct to us to prevent delay.

INCREASE SHOWN IN RETAIL SALES

200 Leading Market Centers Report Consumer Used More Goods in Year Just Past

NOVEMBER WAS GOOD MONTH

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 10.—Following an investigation that touched nearly 20 leading market centers in every part of the United States, and merchandising research committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World reports that consumer demands in 1915, as indicated by retail sales increased approximately 16 per cent. Collections improved materially, according to the report, which was published here today in Associated Advertising, the monthly magazine of the A. A. C. of W.

Stores selling both luxuries and necessities were included in the investigation. November was taken an index month to business conditions. One thousand investigators did the work. They were commercial club secretaries and members of the local advertising clubs under the general direction of Mac Martin of Indianapolis.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN
Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.
We have faith in our ability as rational designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer, Mr. A. H. Schrichte. J. B. SCHRICHTER SONS

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

More Effective Than Cursing. Babylonian tablets, declared to be the oldest writings in existence, relate how farmers of 6,000 years ago fought locusts and caterpillars in their fields. The translator avers that they called in a necromancer, who thus brought his artillery in to play:

"He broke a jar, cut open a sacrifice, a word of cursing he repeated, and the locusts and caterpillars fled."

It must have been a powerful "word of cursing" he repeated. Pity it is that it has been lost. These plagues have been "cursed out" good and plenty in all modern tongues, but they have calmly continued their work of crop devastation. Possibly through the centuries they gradually became hardened to such verbal warfare and declined to abdicate until the man came with the insecticide spray. Then is the time for disappearing certainly.—Breeder's Gazette.

The Elderly Safety Pin. The safety pin and the hook and eye are generally supposed to be modern inventions. The former, in fact, has been credited to Queen Victoria. She may have improved upon it, but certainly she is not entitled to the distinction of having invented it. Numerous specimens of the useful contrivance have been found in the ruins of Crete. Some of them are in the museum of the University of Pennsylvania, and the museum has also a hook and eye from the same place.

Both the safety pins and the hook and eye now in the museum were made at least 900 hundred years before Christ. Some are made of bronze, but amber or some other material was often used on the more elaborate pins. Some were even made of finely wrought gold.—Youth's Companion.

Fish Swarm In the Bosphorus. Of all its many descriptive epithets, ancient and modern, none has clung with more persistent tenacity than the simple, early adjective of "fishy" Bosphorus. Seventy edible varieties of fish, familiar to connoisseurs, sport in its waters. Some have their permanent haunts within the stream. The most are migratory. The instinct of the seasons moves them northward or southward with the birds. The strait is their only possible highway between the Black sea and the Mediterranean. Their summer and winter homes. From March until June and from August to December men, poised in the quaint perches high on piles above the water and constantly on the outlook, watch for the flash of their gilding scales.—From "Constantinople," by Dr. Edwin A. Grosvenor.

taken. The notes amounting to $1,200 reported missing from the safe at the Patton store were found after the safe has been searched. The safe was not disturbed, awaiting the arrival of the dogs, and after the dogs had established the clew to Willard, it was searched and the notes found. The total amount of money taken was $65, as reported Saturday.

Three different sets of finger prints were found on the Patton safe. Bob Owens of Bedford, owner of the bloodhounds, compared the prints to some he carried with him and declared that one set resembled some he found in Illinois a few years ago while on trail of some safe blowers. Owens and his dogs returned to Bedford early Sunday morning.

The supposition in Milroy is that if Willard is implicated in the robbery he is only one of a gang, probably of three men. It is the opinion of many people in Milroy that if the work of the bloodhounds was true, Willard was only the tool of the gang and probably pointed out the job and the lay of the land. If there were two other members of the gang they probably obtained the plunder. The actual safe blowing is believed to have been the work of outsiders. Willard will be given a severe examination in the hope that he will let something drop that will lead to the arrest of others.

Willard has been a resident of Milroy for at least twenty years, with the exception of about seven years during which time his whereabouts were unknown. He has been employed as a paper hanger and plasterer. Willard is known as the "Enoch Arden" of Milroy. In 1899 he married Mollie Henderson and after living with her for several years he suddenly disappeared and his wife, believing he was dead, secured a divorce.

Mrs. Willard married Gilbert Monfort on November 27, 1911. In the meantime Willard, after an absence of seven years, suddenly returned home one day and found that his wife had remarried. Then Monfort became involved in trouble and was sentenced to the Michigan City prison for issuing a fraudulent check. When Monfort was out of the way Willard succeeded in effecting a reconciliation with his former wife and she secured a divorce from Monfort on the grounds that he was an inmate of a penal institution. This divorce was granted September 16, 1912, and on October 10, 1912 Willard married his former wife.

Willard has been a man of more or less mystery ever since he came to Milroy. He always claimed to have come from the east that his birthplace was in Maryland. He claimed to be related to the people who established the famous Willard hotel in Baltimore.

Barbed Wire In the War. In war barbed wire is used in various ways, but its main object is man stopping. It is interlaced with ground pegs in front of trenches for the purpose of tripping charging troops, it is strung across bridges and main roads to prevent the passage of cavalry, and it is used for fencing in camps to guard against rushing tactics on the part of the enemy. Whenever possible barbed wire entanglements are hidden in long grass or in hedges, so that advancing troops will be trapped while the enemy rake their lines with shot and shell. Barbed wire concealed in undergrowth is particularly deadly where cavalry is concerned, for the wire grips the horses' hoofs, causing them to fall on the spike strewn ground.—London Times.

FOR BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

Make the Best Remedy at Home—128 Teaspoonful For 50 Cents.

If everything was sold in as liberal and fair manner as Fox Bros. are selling Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say—"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, if it does not give satisfaction, or if it is not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from others and run the chance of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

In buying this remedy, besides securing an absolute guarantee of its efficiency from these druggists, you also get about eight times as much medicine as you would in buying most any of the old-fashioned, ready-made kinds, which averaged from 20 to 32 teaspoonful, because 50c worth makes a whole pint (128 teaspoonful) when mixed at home with simply one pint of sugar and one-half pint of water. This remedy positively does not contain chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. You will be the sole judge, and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy. Druggists everywhere are authorized to sell it under the same guarantee as Schiffmann's famous Asthmador of "Money Back" if not perfectly satisfactory. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor, (Advertisement.)

Ferndell Ferndell Ferndell

This word has become a household word in every Rushville home where Ferndell Pure Foods have been used. Quality considered, Ferndell foods are no more expensive than other brands and in many instances are cheaper. For instance, Ferndell Tomatoes sell for 15c. Every can is full of whole, ripe, tomatoes and has more food value than two or even three of the cheap varieties. Ferndell Corn is packed in Maine, where the best corn grows, yet we sell it two cans for 25c. Ferndell Telephone Peas at 12½c per can are a great bargain. Ferndell Pearl Hominy at 10c and Ferndell Baked Beans at 15c per can are no higher than any other brands not so good. Ferndell Prepared Pancake and Buckwheat Flours sell for 10c, and contain two ounces more than most brands. Ferndell self-raising Pure Buckwheat Flour is something new, 15c per 2 pound package. Ferndell Canned Fruits cost more than many other brands, but dozens of Rushville housewives will tell you they are glad to pay the difference because no where have they ever found any half so good. We will call your attention to but one article in the canned fruits. Ferndell Skinless Figs are the most delicious fruit ever put in a can. Each can contains one pound and 7 ounces and sells for 40c. We have lately taken up Ferndell Coffees and our customers tell us they are of the same high quality as the rest of the line, prices, 25c, 30c, 35c, and 40c per lb. When you want something better and different ask us for FERDEL—No other store in Rushville has these goods.

SAY WOMAN WAS SOUND MENTALLY

Defense in Will Suit Introduces Evidence to Refute Contention of Plaintiffs.

WHO SAID SHE WAS INSANE

The suit to break the will of Mrs. Nancy Miller, who lived near Homer up to the time of her death in January, 1914, is progressing slowly in the Shelby circuit court at Shelbyville. The plaintiffs have rested and the defense is introducing its witnesses.

The burden of the testimony for the defense is that Mrs. Miller, about the time the will was made, was in a sound mental condition and as bright as usual, though her physical condition at the time was failing. The plaintiffs contended she was of unsound mind when she wrote the will.

The following witnesses were examined Saturday: G. Abernathy, Sally Carr, Osra Ellison, Alba Hurst, Mrs. Alba Hurst, Aiken Washburn, Emma Clingman, Julia Ellison, Mattie Abernathy, Ella Greason, Fannie Gaheimer and Fremont Ellison.

Amusements

The Princess will show the feature picture "The Song of Hate" for the program tonight. Betty Nansen, Arthur Hoops and Dorothy Bernard are featured. The favored one, a young artist, who in the end proves to be untrue to her, Miss Nansen's superb acting is one of the features. Tomorrow night the three act drama "Despair" will be shown.

The Gem offers a three reel drama "Lil' Norwester" for the program tonight. Mary Fuller and Paul Panzer are featured. It is said to tell a delightful story. It is a drama of the coast and the scenes are said to be beautiful. Tomorrow night the next episode of "The Broken Coin" will be shown. On Wednesday night the big feature "The College Orphan" will be shown in which Carter De Haven is featured.

While in the process of moving to their new building, the Twentieth Century Cleaning plant found that the old boiler was not in good condition and it will be several days before a new boiler can reach here. SUSPECT HELD IN MILROY THEFT

Harry Willard, Known as "Enoch Arden," Arrested After Bloodhounds follow Trail to his Door.

DENIES HE IS IMPLICATED

Milroy People Believe That if He is Guilty, He was Only Tool of Gang Who Did Work.

FINGER PRINTS ARE TAKEN

He is Charged With Burglarizing Patton's Store—Mysterious Disappearance Recalled.

Harry Willard, age 58, is held in jail here specifically charged with the robbery of the John E. Patton store in Milroy. Willard is a resident of Milroy and the looting of the three places Saturday morning was laid directly to him by the bloodhounds, which were brought to Milroy late Saturday evening from Bedford.

The work of the bloodhounds was a sensation in that three different starts were made from the business houses that were robbed and in each case the trail led to the door of the Willard home, which is in the northern part of Milroy. On the strength of the bloodhounds trailing Mr. Patton believed he was justified in filing charges against Willard. The Milroy people came here Sunday morning about two o'clock and the affidavit was signed and a search warrant issued.

Sheriff Cavitt and Prosecutor Stevens went directly to Milroy and Willard was lodged in jail here about four o'clock Sunday morning. He denied all knowledge of the crime and while he would not talk very freely, stated that he knew nothing concerning the robbery and could not explain the action of the dogs in following a trail to his home. His wife was as much surprised as Willard appeared to be, and stated that "it was a good joke on Milroy."

Using the search warrant issued by Clerk Taylor, Sheriff Cavitt searched the Willard home, but could find nothing that would serve as evidence against him. Since a number of cigars were taken from the Greer-Wilkinson lumber company's office, it was thought probably that Willard, if he was guilty, had some of these cigars, but none were to be found. The charge against him is burglary and his bond was placed at $1,000, which he has been unable to secure.

The work of the bloodhounds was watched by a large and curious crowd. The trial established by the dogs would indicate that the Meek and Spillman store was entered first. The dogs were first started at this store and easily picked up a trail, which led to the Patton store. From the Patton store the trail led to the Willard home. Three different starts were made from as many different places and each time the trail led to the home of Willard.

Since Saturday it has developed that the Bosley elevator was also entered but nothing of value was

A horse driven by Howard Stout and hitched to a storm buggy became frightened when the buggy ran up on it while coming down the Main street hill this morning and made a wild dash. One side of the shafts was broken, and when stopped south of the Third street the horse was free from the buggy.

FEBRUARY 5 LAST DAY FOR FILING

Attorney General Makes Ruling on State-Wide Primary Law Concerning Petitions.

THOUGHT TO BE FEBRUARY 7

Although it was generally believed here, according to a construction placed on the law, that candidates for congressional, legislative, judicial, county and township offices had until and including February 7, an opinion from the state attorney-general, Evan Stotsenburg, to Homer L. Cook, secretary of state, say that candidates for these nominations on the various tickets will have to have their petitions on file by the time for the close of business February 5. A petition filed on February 7 will not allow the candidate's name to be placed on the primary ballot and February 6 falls on Sunday so that February 5 will be the last day.

The law says candidates for the class of offices mentioned must file their petitions not later than thirty days before the day of the primary nor earlier than sixty days. All candidates for president, vice-president, senator and governor got their petitions into the secretary of state's office in Indianapolis Friday, when the time expired for their filing.

PUNCH BOARDS ALL OUT OF SIGHT TODAY

Last Game of Rhum for Checks is Also Played Following Orders From the Mayor.

SIMILAR EDICTS ELSEWHERE

Rhum games and punch boards were a thing of the past in Rushville today. They disappeared as if by magic Sunday night, following an order issued by Mayor Bebout the latter part of last week that they should all be stopped by Monday. Rhum games had become the chief pastime in Rushville in most eight stores and pool rooms. The punch board was almost a fixture in many places of business.

Opposition to the punch boards has been aroused in several Indiana cities lately. Only recently an order went forth in Indianapolis prohibiting the boards. By some strange coincidence, punch boards were not allowed in Newcastle after today, either. The Newcastle Courier says Mayor Watkins gave merchants until Monday to get rid of them.

SPOUSES MEET WITH TROUBLE

Jasper Dudgeon of Glenwood is Cited For Contempt For Failure to Appear in Court.

GIVEN TIME TO PAY $60 BACK

Similar Proceedings Are Started Against G. W. Cassady, Whose Wife is Asking for Divorce.

Failure to pay support money for his children as provided in a divorce decree resulted in Jasper Dudgeon of Glenwood getting a severe lecture in circuit court today. He was cited for contempt of court. Dudgeon was ordered to appear at nine o'clock this morning and when he failed to put in an appearance an attachment was issued to the sheriff for him and he was brought into court under arrest.

Dudgeon owes his divorced wife $60 in back pay and told the court that he had been unable to find work. It was decided to give him a reasonable time to find work and then if he made no effort to pay the alimony the court will send him to jail. Mrs. Dudgeon was in court, appearing against her one-time husband. She interrupted the court several times and on one of these occasions told Judge Sparks he might send Dudgeon to her house and let him help her with the nine washings a week that she was now turning out.

A proceeding similar to the Dudgeon case was started in court this morning when Mrs. Della Cassady filed a motion to cite George Woodford Cassady to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt. Mrs. Cassady is suing him for divorce and the court has ordered the defendant to pay her the sum of $25 a month support money and $20 attorney fees. The motion this morning stated that he has paid only half of the attorney fee and owes her the sum of $12.50. Judge Sparks appointed Raymond Springer as special judge in this case and the contempt proceedings will probably be taken up by him. Three names were suggested and each side struck out one, leaving the name of Judge Springer.

Harry McManus was appointed guardian for Carl McManus by the court this morning. Carl McManus is now an inmate of the Madison insane asylum. The bond of the guardian in the sum of $7,000 was approved by the court.

The trial of George Coleman, charged with wife desertion will be held Thursday. Coleman was arrested Saturday. The charge against him was filed by his wife, Mary E. Coleman. Coleman is the man who succeeded in escaping arrest about a month ago by running from Deputy Sheriff Sullivan.

LONTZ MAY YET ENTER THE RACE

Wayne County Democrats Are Hopeful of Persuading Richmond Man to Oppose Finly Gray.

DESPITE RECENT REFUSAL

On the heels of the announcement that John M. Lontz, Richmond manufacturer, had refused to oppose Finly Gray in the primaries and that Wayne county Democrats might center their efforts on Samuel L. Trabue of this city comes the announcement that Mr. Lontz may yet be induced to "take it back" and enter the race as a candidate for the democratic nomination for congress.

Mr. Trabue let it be known Saturday that he is in a receptive frame of mind although he has not fully determined that he would make the race even if he were more urgently requested to than he has been. Lontz's popularity with Wayne county Democrats was attested at the Democratic meeting in Wayne county last Friday night when John A. M. Adair spoke.

One of the big features of the Cambridge City meeting was the reception for Mr. Lontz and practically every Democrat present who knew him or was introduced appealed to him to become a candidate. Mr. Lontz laughed away all of the urgings.

"I have some very strong reasons for not becoming a candidate and I assure you that I feel deeply your kindness in urging me to become a candidate," Mr. Lontz told them. "You do know what a sore heart I had when I sent that telegram of refusal to Mr. Harper." Mr. Lontz was in close conference with Mr. Adair during the evening and was prominent throughout the program and developments following it.

It is believed that Mr. Lontz can be prevailed upon to cast aside his objections and become the candidate. It is said that if Mr. Lontz becomes a candidate, Finly Gray of Connersville will not seek re-election. Mr. Adair talked with Mr. Gray and did not know whether he plans to seek the nomination.

Many party leaders, however, are still hopeful of inducing Mr. Lontz to enter the congressional contest and say that they are prepared to bring even greater pressure to bear on him to bend him to their wishes. It was a remarkable fact that among the large crowd of active party workers assembled at Cambridge not one man was heard to lift his voice in advocacy of the renomination of Finly H. Gray, who, at the present time is the only candidate for the congressional newspapers.

Quite a few Democrats, who believe there is no chance of inducing Mr. Lontz to enter the contest, were mentioning Friday night, the name of Lawrence Bertsch of Cambridge City, one of Wayne county's most successful young businessmen, as an acceptable candidate for Wayne county to enter in the congressional contest.

Mr. Bertsch, who is vice president of the Bertsch Machine Manufacturing company of Cambridge City, says that he is willing to enter the contest if his candidacy would be acceptable to Wayne county Democrats. If there is a chance of his candidacy disturbing the harmonious unity of the party organization, he said Friday night, he will give no further consideration to the matter.

SHERIFF GETS IN ON A COCK FIGHT

Noblesville Officer Prepares to Serve Affidavits After Witnessing Some Big Money Change Hands.

SB GAME COCKS ON GROUNDS

(By United Press.) Noblesville, Ind., Jan. 10.—Sheriff Waddell was preparing today to make arrests on warrants that grew out of what is said to have been one of the most elaborate cock fights ever staged in Indiana. The warrants charge the unlawful possession of liquor and conducting cocking main at Cicero.

Sheriff Waddell and a deputy witnessed the fight several minutes before they were detected. The crowd then quickly dispersed.

Fifty-eight game cocks were on hand, the birds having been shipped in from Kentucky, Ohio, Muncie and Chicago.

Big money was changing hands when the sheriff arrived, he said. The sports dashed for their cars and the large pavilion at Magnetic Springs was soon dark after the raid.

PLANS APPEAL TO THE COUNTRY

President Wilson Will Ask People to Lend Moral Support to Preparedness Program.

TO MAKE ADDRESS JANUARY 27

Faces Embarrassing Situation With House Leader Openly Opposed and Senate Leader Partially So.

(By United Press.) Washington, Jan. 10.—President Wilson, taking personal charge of the battle for preparedness, will appeal to the country soon to lend its moral support to this fight. Unsatisfactory reports from administration supporters in congress on the situation has led to the determination of the president. His first address to the public probably will be January 27 either at Baltimore or New York City. Preparedness will be his program.

Tomorrow the president will confer with Chairman Hay of the house military affairs committee. He will ask for details as to the status of the fight.

The administration is faced with an embarrassing situation in congress in addition to the fact that Democratic representatives report that the rank and file of the party from the central states are opposed to the program, the floor leaders of both branches are not actively supporting it.

Kitchen in the house is openly opposed. Friends of Senator Kern, the Democratic leader, say he is "uncertain" as to just what he will do. Kern's strongest statement has been that generally speaking he will support the program but that as to just which of the various plans proposed he will favor he has not determined.

This attitude has not advanced preparedness plans in the senate any further than in the house where the majority leader is against it.

THOSE THAT HAVE-GET BY WESTON

ROADS IN CHINA.

They Remind One Very Much of the Snakes in Ireland.

BECAUSE THERE ARE NONE.

What Apologies There Are For Them Are a Great Deal Like the Bed of a Stone Quarry—The Torture That Goes With a Trip in a Peking Cart.

Describing the roads, or, rather, the lack of roads, in China and the torture that is undergone by the tourist who, used to the luxurious modes of travel we may employ, trusts himself to the uncertain joys of a trip in a Peking chair, a writer in the Wide World Magazine says:

"Now, a Peking cart is a very venerable mode of progression. When our ancestors were lightly dressed in wood and had no conception of any wheeled vehicle the Chinese lady was paying her calls in the back of a Peking cart, the seat of honor under the tilt, well out of sight of the passers by, while her servant sat in front, the place of comfort, if such a word can be applied to anything pertaining to a Peking cart."

"In spite of its long and aristocratic record if there is any mode of progression more wearying and uncomfortable I have not met it. It is simply a springless board set on a couple of wheels with a wagon tilt of blue cotton over it and a place for heavy luggage behind. The Chinaman sits on the floor and does not seem to mind, but the ordinary westerner, like myself, packs his bedding and all the cushions he can beg or borrow around him and then resigns himself to his fate."

"The Peking cart has one advantage. people will tell you—it has nothing to break in it. But there are moments when it would be a mighty relief if something did break, for if the wood-work holds together as it tosses you from side to side you yourself are one sore, bruised mass. No; I cannot recommend a Peking cart, even on the smoothest road."

"And the roads in China are not smooth. We all know the description of the snakes in Ireland. 'There are none,' and much the same might be said about the roads in China. There are so called roads, certainly, upon which the people move about, but I have seldom met one that was any better than the surrounding country. and very, very often on this journey I met roads where it was ease and luxury to move off them on to the neighboring plowed field."

"The recipe for a road there in the north seems to be: Take a piece of the country that is really too bad to plow or to use for any agricultural purpose whatever, that a mountain torrent, in fact, has given up as too much for the water, upset a stone wall over it—a stone wall with good, large stones in it—take care they never for a moment lie evenly, and you have your road."

"Leaving Peking for the eastern tombs, you go for the first two or three hours along a paved way of magnificent proportions planned and laid out as a highway should be. The great stones with which it is paved were probably put there by slave labor, how many hundred years ago I do not know, but the blocks are uneven now, some of them are gone altogether, though how a huge block of stone could possibly disappear passes my understanding, and whenever the carter could he took the cart down beside the road, where at least the dust made a cushion for the nail studded wheels, and the jarring and the jolting were not quite so terrible."

"It takes as long to get beyond the environs of Peking in a cart as it does to get out of London in a motorcar. First we passed through the Babylonish gate, and the great walls were behind us; then, outside the city, all looking dusty, dirty and khaki colored in the brilliant sunshine, were numerous small houses, and the wayside was lined with booths on which were things for sale.

"Along the roadway came an endless array of people, clad for the most part in blue cotton—men walking, men with loads slung from a bamboo across their shoulders, donkeys laden with baskets or sacks of grain, with fat Chinese on their backs. There were Peking carts, there were mules, there were ponies, and this busy throng is almost the same as it was a couple of thousand years ago."

"But it was a long, long while before I could feel I was really in the country. There was the khaki colored land, there were the khaki colored houses, built of mud apparently, with graceful tiled roofs, and blue clad people everywhere and everywhere at work."

"Always the fields were most beautifully tilled. There were no fences. The Chinese are too civilized to need fences, and when you see stone walls it is only because, since they can't be dropped off the planet into space, the stones must be disposed of somehow."

Paris For Politeness.

Translated rather crudely and literally, this is the notice in a Paris trolley car: "Messieurs the passengers descending from the carriage are urged (literally "prayed"), before renouncing the shelter which the carriage they are about to quit offers them, to assure themselves, as a preliminary, that no carriage coming in the opposite direction is in proximity."

Animals at Play.

"That the lower animals do not laugh, that they have no sense of humor, is hard to understand when we think how thoroughly they love to play. From the highest to the humblest they show the keenest joy in sport, but they cannot laugh. If they could perhaps the power would bring with it other mental gifts, such as to upset the whole order of things. Be that as it may, the watcher of wild life never gets used to the sight of their mirthless sport, for in all other respects their play is entirely human."

"A great deal of human play is serious—desperately serious on the football field and at the card table, especially when a lonely player at solitaire, for instance, is trying to 'kill time.'"

"I have watched a great ungainly hippopotamus trying by the hour to do the same solemn thing—cuffing a croquet ball back and forth from one end of his cage to the other. His keepers said that without the plaything the poor caged giant would fret and worry himself to death. It was his game of solitaire."—Dallas Lore Sharp in St. Nicholas.

Famous Dams.

The construction of the gigantic storage wall, known as the Burrinjuck dam, the most interesting part of the New South Wales irrigation scheme, was a clever piece of engineering work. Indeed, it ranks as one of the greatest dams in the world, both in regard to height and volume of water impounded. It is 236 feet high, 168 feet thick at the base, tapering to 18 feet at the top and some 780 feet in length. The famous dam at Assuan, on the Nile, has a total height of only 156 feet, while the great Croton and Roosevelt dams in America eclipse the Burrinjuck structure by only a few feet. It is a massive wall of concrete over thirty feet higher than the London monument. This colossal structure, however, had to be built across the bed of a river subjected to floods, in a deep gorge whose sides were so steep that it was impossible to establish workshops upon them.—London Mail.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

It is Painful.

The dilemma of the Progressive party in Indiana is becoming painful. It should be embarrassing to E. M. Lee, former Lawrenceburg undertaker who got $20,000 from George Perkins to bury out here in Indiana. Lee has had his tilt with Jackson Boyd of Greencastle, former state chairman who was shoved out of the way to make room for Lee, and when he went to Richmond last Saturday to attend a meeting of the Wayne county Progressive committee, he stepped right into another hot-bed of ecclesiasticalism.

Rudolph Leeds, publisher of the Richmond palladium and national committeeman from Indiana, resigned and made a statement to the Wayne county committee that the Progressive party was on the downgrade and that he proposed to support James Goodrich, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor. Leeds said the condition of the Progressive party was due to the mismanagement of its leaders, which does not speak well for Leeds because he has been national committeeman from Indiana since the party's inception.

State Chairman Lee said that he did not want to enter the campaign with the banner Bull Moose county of the United States out of the running. Naturally enough, but no sooner were the words spoken than Leeds resigned as national committeeman and Roy Fry resigned as secretary of the county committee. A few weeks ago a member of the Wayne county board of commissioners who was elected on the Bull Moose ticket in 1912 announced that he had left the party and would seek renomination and re-election on the Republican ticket.

But the defection in Wayne county will not worry Mr. Lee. He has greater breakers ahead. Jackson Boyd, who Lee says is a good lawyer and writes poetry but has no more judgment about politics than a school boy, is continually stirring up trouble by giving out statements about Lee Hanlyizing the party.

The Hanlyizing process seems to have been accomplished. Lee has "wished" the apparently unpopular Hanly on the party by making him candidate for governor. Hanly won't play unless they play his way. That is to say, Hanly will not continue as the Bull Moose candidate for governor unless the Bull Moose state convention leaves the initiative, referendum and recall plank out of the platform. Progressives who take themselves seriously stood aghast when they heard of the agreement between Hanly and Lee. With Hanly it's prohibition first and come what may afterwards.

The Progressive party may not expect any support from the Prohibition party. A statement from the state committee of the latter party says that the party will make its own fight and that there will be no amalgamation with the Bull Moosers. The Anti-Saloon League is through with Hanly, to all intents and purposes, judging from the dispute during the anti-partisan convention in Indianapolis recently when Hanly proposed to start a new party if neither of the old parties would accept the prohibition propaganda.

The quest of the state chairman for a candidate for United States senator was equally disastrous. William Dudley Foulke of Richmond, who consented to seek that nomination on the Progressive ticket, promptly withdrew when he learned of the agreement between Lee and Hanly. Then Lee began a "still" hunt for a candidate as he had not many days left in which to procure the consent of someone and file their petition according to the provisions of the primary law.

Judge Wilson of Bloomington evidently jumped for the "honor." By jumping or otherwise, he caught it. His position is all the more ridiculous, for he not only accepted the offer of Lee to become the candidate after Foulke had declined it publicly, giving his reasons, but also, notwithstanding the fact that he had announced about three weeks ago that he had forsaken the Bull Moose party and had returned to the Republican party. Judge Wilson must have forgotten that newspaper files were preserved and that people still had memories.

Meanwhile, what are Mr. Lee and his party going to do for a candidate for governor if Hanly does as he threatens to do and the state convention does not abide by the agreement between Lee and Hanly? The time has elapsed for filing petitions to get another candidate's name on the primary ballot. If the state convention declares for the initiative, referendum and recall, Hanly will resign. The primary law does not provide for the nomination of an eleventh-hour candidate under any circumstances. There you are. Unravel the mystery for yourself.

HOOSIER HISTORY

(Prepared for the United Press by the Centennial Department of the Indiana Historical Commission.)

Sons of Liberty "Mummery."

A contemporary speaks of the ritual and procedure of this secret political society as "a strange medley of blasphemy and innocence, past credulity." "Who can imagine a man of reasonable sense would stand up after the three mysterious raps at the subterranean wicket and hear his sponsor, in answer to the sepulchral, 'Who cometh? Who cometh? Who cometh?' gravely respond, 'A citizen we found in the hands of despotism, bound and well nigh crushed to death beneath their oppression.' This was the initiation of the 'Sons of Liberty,' standing in the 'vestibule of the temple,' the right hand under the left arm, the left arm under the right arm, or with his hands crossed over his bowels representing the belt of Orion."

Work of the Ground Mole.

There is a popular belief that the ground mole is a destructive animal. Like many popular beliefs this cannot be substantiated by facts. Ground moles do not feed upon roots and are not destructive. The ground mole is a subterranean animal. It builds its nest, rears its young and hunts its prey beneath the earth. It is well adapted to its subterranean life, the shape of its body being cylindrical, gradually tapering to a point at the extremity of its nose. Ground moles visit only those localities where the earth is infested with insect life. Where they are numerous the ground is interlarded with "runs" or passageways that lead from one feeding ground to another. These little animals deserve protection because they prey upon all kinds of underground insects, among which are the larvae of some of the most injurious insects which pass their pupa or chrysalis stage beneath the earth.—Country Life in America.

The Remedy For Anger.

The greatest remedy for anger is delay; beg anger to grant you this at the first, not in order that it may pardon the offense, but that it may form a right judgment about it; if it delays it will come to an end. Do not attempt to quell it all at once, for its first impulses are fierce; by plucking away its parts we shall remove the whole. We are made angry by some things which we learn at second hand and by some things which we ourselves hear or see. Now, we ought to be slow to believe what is told us. * * * If you were about to give sentence in court about ever so small a sum of money you would take nothing as proved without a witness, and a witness would count for nothing except on his oath. You would allow both sides to be heard; you would allow them time.—Seneca.

Fire in a Cotton Bale.

Kerosene oil has been used successfully to extinguish fire in baled cotton. A cotton bale is subjected to a very heavy pressure. Water will penetrate it but an inch or so, whereas kerosene will go clear to the center. A fire in a cotton bale does not blaze, but simply smolders and eats its way into the bale. At the comparatively low temperature at which cotton burns, and where there is no flame, kerosene does not ignite, but smolders or extinguishes the slow, creeping fire. After the fire is extinguished the bands are removed from the bale and burned portions of the cotton stripped off. It is said that the use of kerosene has practically no detrimental effect on the cotton, and after it has been spread out and aired for a few days all odor of the oil disappears.—Argonaut.

Colored Evidence.

A well known lawyer was trying to make clear to a legal student the significance of the term "colored evidence," meaning that evidence which has been tampered with. "The best illustration I can think of came within my observation not long ago," said the lawyer. "A physician had said to a fair patient: 'Madam, you are a little run down. You need frequent baths and plenty of fresh air, and I advise you to dress in the coolest, most comfortable clothes; nothing stiff or formal.' 'When the lady got home this is how she rendered to her husband the advice given to her by the doctor: 'He says I must go to the seashore, do plenty of motoring and get some new summer gowns.'—New York Times.

Rushville Baking Company Will Supplant Talbert Home Bakery in McClaren Street.

CAPITAL STOCK TO BE $8,000

It was announced today that a stock company would be formed to back a modern and up-to-date bakery in Rushville. The company will be incorporated for $8,000 and will be known as the Rushville Baking company. It will take over the holdings of the Talbert home bakery, in McClaren street, which was established by W. W. Weakly of Shelbyville several years ago. The stock will all be common and will sell for twenty-five dollars a share. Mr. Weakly will assist in the organization.

The Talbert home bakery will be remodeled and put in shape for first-class bread baking. It was stated that the new company expects to meet the demands of local bread users and that it will have the support of Rushville grocers.

IS SPRING COMING.

If someone wants to know if spring is coming, ask some section men on the Big Four railroad, for Saturday afternoon they killed a water moccasin snake about a half mile south of the Rushville station. The snake was four and a half feet long and the men are willing to make affidavit to that effect. The varmint was dragged from a tile drain.

IT'S THREE YEARS OLD

But Mrs. Reynolds Says It's Just as Good Today as When it Was First Made.

Three years ago Mrs. Reynolds testified to complete relief from kidney ills.

She now says that there has not been the slightest return of the trouble.

Rushville sufferers will take a deal of comfort in Mrs. Reynolds' statement.

Read what she says:

Mrs. B. W. Reynolds 620 West Fifth street, Rushville says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are an excellent medicine and do all they are advertised to do. When we use Doan's Kidney Pills in our family, they proved very beneficial."

The above statement was given July 27, 1912, and on Aug. 26, 1915, Mrs. Reynolds said: "Doan's Kidney Pills were of great help to me when I used them and the cure they brought me has proven permanent. I gladly confirm my former endorsement."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Reynolds has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement.)

A Suggestive Argument In Favor of

Preparedness

The present session of congress will be the most important in its scope since the civil war.

Millions will be appropriated for defense. The traditional policies of the government will probably be revolutionized.

The Army and Navy

will have more money at its disposal during the next few years than ever before during time of peace. Our diplomatic relations with some of the countries at war may be suspended at any time, War may possibly follow such action on our part.

Peace May Be Declared

during the new year between the countries now at war, and it is assumed that the United States will become the chief arbitrator, if it is able to remain neutral until such time.

Mexico

is in a reconstructive period, and continues to make history of the most pitiful type.

The National Conventions Will be Held in June

This is presidential year. President Wilson will probably be endorsed again by the Democrats and be renominated. Who the Republican candidate will be is yet a matter of speculation. These are only a few of the big things the leading newspapers of the country will tell about. In the meantime all the news of interest to the home and to workers and children is not to be neglected.

Everybody Should be Prepared

to keep posted on these all-important events and no American citizen should remain in ignorance of what is going on. No person can expect to keep posted on the affairs of the big wide world unless he reads a metropolitan newspaper. The local paper, which gives him the items from his immediate neighborhood covers its field, which is from force of circumstances, confined to a small radius.

The Indianapolis News

has every existing facility for gathering news. It is a client of the two great press associations, THE ASSOCIATED PRESS and THE UNITED PRESS, which cover every part of the globe. Its Washington bureau is manned by an experienced staff of writers, and in the state of Indiana, there are over 800 correspondents, covering practically every hamlet, town and city.

NOVEMBER WAS GOOD MONTH

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 10.—Following an investigation that touched nearly 20 leading market centers in every part of the United States, and merchandising research committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World reports that consumer demands in 1915, as indicated by retail sales increased approximately 16 per cent. Collections improved materially, according to the report, which was published here today in Associated Advertising, the monthly magazine of the A. A. C. of W.

Stores selling both luxuries and necessities were included in the investigation. November was taken an index month to business conditions. One thousand investigators did the work. They were commercial club secretaries and members of the local advertising clubs under the general direction of Mae Martin of Indianapolis.

UP-TO-NOW IN DESIGN

Designs as shown by some firms are more or less freakish or fadish to attract the attention of the prospective customers with scarcely a thought of their wearing appearance or correctness in proportion. But then they are merely on paper and represent but a small loss if they don't take.

We have faith in our ability as practical designers and as proof we show at our works a most complete selection of ready to erect monuments designed by our nationally recognized designer.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested food, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

More Effective Than Cursing.

Babylonian tablets, declared to be the oldest writings in existence, relate how farmers of 6,000 years ago fought locusts and caterpillars in their fields. The translator avers that they called in a necromancer, who thus brought his artillery in to play:

"He broke a jar, cut open a sacrifice, a word of cursing he repeated, and the locusts and caterpillars fled."

It must have been a powerful "word of cursing" he repeated. Pity it is that it has been lost. These plagues have been "cussed out" good and plenty in all modern tongues, but they have calmly continued their work of crop devastation. Possibly through the centuries they gradually became hardened to such verbal warfare and declined to abdicate until the man came with the insecticide spray. Then is the time for disappearing certainly.—Breeder's Gazette.

The Elderly Safety Pin.

The safety pin and the book and eye are generally supposed to be modern inventions. The former, in fact, has been credited to Queen Victoria. She may have improved upon it, but certainly she is not entitled to the distinction of having invented it. Numerous specimens of the useful contrivance have been found in the ruins of Crete. Some of them are in the museum of the University of Pennsylvania, and the museum has also a book and eye from the same place.

Both the safety pins and the book and eye now in the museum were made at least 900 hundred years before Christ. Some are made of bronze, but amber or some other material was often used on the more elaborate pins. Some were even made of finely wrought gold.—Youth's Companion.

Fish Swarm In the Bosphorus.

Of all its many descriptive epithets, ancient and modern, none has clung with more persistent tenacity than the simple, early adjective of "fishy" Bosphorus. Seventy edible varieties of fish, familiar to connoisseurs, sport in its waters. Some have their permanent haunts within the stream. The most are migratory. The instinct of the seasons moves them northward or southward with the birds. The strait is their only possible highway between the Black sea and the Mediterranean, their summer and winter homes. From March until June and from August to December men, poised in the quaint perches high on piles above the water and constantly on the outlook, watch for the flash of their glistening scales.—From "Constantinople," by Dr. Edwin A. Grosvenor.

taken. The notes amounting to $1,200 reported missing from the safe at the Patton store were found after the safe has been searched. The safe was not disturbed, awaiting the arrival of the dogs, and after the dogs had established the clew to Willard, it was searched and the notes found. The total amount of money taken was $65, as reported Saturday.

Three different sets of finger prints were found on the Patton safe. Bob Owens of Bedford, owner of the bloodhounds, compared the prints to some he carried with him and declared that one set resembled some he found in Illinois a few years ago while on trail of some safe blowers. Owens and his dogs returned to Bedford early Sunday morning.

The supposition in Milroy is that if Willard is implicated in the robbery he is only one of a gang, probably of three men. It is the opinion of many people in Milroy that if the work of the bloodhounds was true, Willard was only the tool of the gang and probably pointed out the job and the lay of the land. If there were two other members of the gang they probably obtained the plunder. The actual safe blowing is believed to have been the work of outsiders. Willard will be given a severe examination in the hope that he will let something drop that will lead to the arrest of others.

Willard has been a resident of Milroy for at least twenty years, with the exception of about seven years during which time his whereabouts were unknown. He has been employed as a paper hanger and plasterer. Willard is known as the "Enoch Arden" of Milroy. In 1899 he married Mollie Henderson and after living with her for several years he suddenly disappeared and his wife, believing he was dead, secured a divorce.

Mrs. Willard married Gilbert Montfort on November 27, 1914. In the meantime Willard, after an absence of seven years, suddenly returned home one day and found that his wife had remarried. Then Montfort became involved in trouble and was sentenced to the Michigan City prison for issuing a fraudulent check. When Montfort was out of the way Willard succeeded in effecting a reconciliation with his former wife and she secured a divorce from Montfort on the grounds that he was an inmate of a penal institution. This divorce was granted September 16, 1912, and on October 10, 1912 Willard married his former wife.

Willard has been a man of more or less mystery ever since he came to Milroy. He always claimed to have come from the east that his birthplace was in Maryland. He claimed to be related to the people who established the famous Willard hotel in Baltimore.

Barbed Wire In the War.

In war barbed wire is used in various ways, but its main object is man stopping. It is interlaced with ground pegs in front of trenches for the purpose of tripping charging troops. It is strung across bridges and main roads to prevent the passage of cavalry, and it is used for fencing in camps to guard against rushing tactics on the part of the enemy. Whenever possible barbed wire entanglements are hidden in long grass or in hedges, so that advancing troops will be trapped while the one may rake their lines with shot and shell. Barbed wire concealed in undergrowth is particularly deadly where cavalry is concerned, for the wire grips the horses' hoofs, causing them to fall on the spike strewn ground.—London Times.

FOR BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

Make the Best Remedy at Home— 128 Teaspoonful For 50 Cents.

If everything was sold in as liberal and fair manner as Fox Bros. are selling Schiffmann's New Concentrated Expectorant, absolutely no cause for complaint or dissatisfaction could possibly arise from anyone. These druggists say—"Buy a bottle of this remedy and try it for Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup or any Bronchial Affection, and we will return your money, just as we do with Schiffmann's famous Asthmador, if it does not give satisfaction, or if it is not found the best remedy ever used for any of these complaints." Why not take advantage of this guarantee and try this medicine, and get your money back, rather than buying another purely on the exaggerated claims of its manufacturer or on the strength of testimonials from other—and run the chance of getting something worthless and also wasting your money?

In buying this remedy, besides securing an absolute guarantee of its efficiency from these druggists, you also get about eight times as much medicine as you would in buying most any of the old-fashioned, ready-made kinds, which averaged from 20 to 32 teaspoonful, because 50c worth makes a whole pint (128 teaspoonful) when mixed at home with simply one pint of sugar and one-half pint of water. This remedy positively does not contain chloroform, opium, morphine or any other narcotic. It is pleasant to take and children are fond of it. You will be the sole judge, and under this positive guarantee absolutely no risk is run in buying this remedy. Druggists everywhere are authorized to sell it under the same guarantee as Schiffmann's famous Asthmador of "Money Back" if not perfectly satisfactory. R. J. Schiffmann, Proprietor. (Advertisement.)

Pyorrhea—the disease nearly everybody has

No matter how sound your teeth may seem to be, no matter how you may scoff at the idea of your having this disease, it is a positive fact that the germ which causes it is working now in your teeth.

The appalling discovery of this fact—that the germ which causes pyorrhea is one which inhabits every human mouth—was made over a year ago. Since then dentists have been urging everyone to take special precautions in their daily toilet to prevent this disease from developing in its acute form of bleeding gums, tenderness in chewing and loose teeth.

To meet the need for such a daily treatment and to enable everyone to take the necessary precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Senreco Tooth Paste.

Senreco contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Senreco also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Senreco treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Senreco at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Senreco Remedies Co., 505 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

SAY WOMAN WAS SOUND MENTALLY

Defense in Will Suit Introduces Evidence to Refute Contention of Plaintiffs.

WHO SAID SHE WAS INSANE

The suit to break the will of Mrs. Nancy Miller, who lived near Homer up to the time of her death in January, 1914, is progressing slowly in the Shelby circuit court at Shelbyville. The plaintiffs have rested and the defense is introducing its witnesses.

The burden of the testimony for the defense is that Mrs. Miller, about the time the will was made, was in a sound mental condition and as bright as usual, though her physical condition at the time was failing. The plaintiffs contended she was of unsound mind when she wrote the will.

The following witnesses were examined Saturday: G. Abernathy, Sally Carr, Osra Ellison, Alba Hurst, Mrs. Alba Hurst, Aiken Washburn, Emma Clingman, Julia Ellison, Mattie Abernathy, Ella Greason, Fannie Gabeimer and Fremont Ellison.

Amusements

The Princess will show the feature picture "The Song of Hate" for the program tonight. Betty Nansen, Arthur Hoops and Dorothy Bernard are featured. It is a powerful modern photoplay based on Sardou's famed "La Tosca." Two men are rivals for the love of a celebrated opera singer. The favored one, a young artist, who in the end proves to be untrue to her. Miss Nansen's superb acting is one of the features. Tomorrow night the three act drama "Despair" will be shown.

The Gem offers a three reel drama "Lil' Nor'wester" for the program tonight. Mary Fuller and Paul Panzer are featured. It is said to tell a delightful story. It is a drama of the coast and the scenes are said to be beautiful. Tomorrow night the next episode of "The Broken Coin" will be shown. On Wednesday night the big feature "The College Orphan" will be shown in which Carter De Haven is featured.

While in the process of moving to their new building, the Twentieth Century Cleaning plant found that the old boiler was not in good condition and it will be several days before a new boiler can reach here. As a result of the boiler trouble the plant is temporarily out of commission. The repairs will be made as soon as possible and business resumed in their new location.

Ferndell Ferndell Ferndell

This word has become a household word in every Rushville home where Ferndell Pure Foods have been used.

Quality considered, Ferndell foods are no more expensive than other brands and in many instances are cheaper. For instance, Ferndell Tomatoes sell for 15c. Every can is full of whole, ripe, tomatoes and has more food value than two or even three of the cheap varieties. Ferndell Corn is packed in Maine, where the best corn grows, yet we sell it two cents for 25c. Ferndell Telephone Peas at 12c per can are a great bargain. Ferndell Pearl Hominy at 10c and Ferndell Baked Beans at 15c per can are no higher than any other brands not so good. Ferndell Prepared Pancake and Buckwheat Flours sell for 10c, and contain two ounces more than most brands. Ferndell self-raising Pure Buckwheat Flour is something new, 15c per 2 pound package. Ferndell Canned Fruits cost more than many other brands, but dozens of Rushville housewives will tell you they are glad to pay the difference because no where have they ever found any half so good. We will call your attention to but one article in the canned fruits. Ferndell Skinless Figs are the most delicious fruit ever put in a can. Each can contains one pound and 7 ounces and sells for 40c. We have lately taken up Ferndell Coffee and our customers tell us they are of the same high quality as the rest of the line, prices, 25c, 30c, 35c, and 40c per lb. When you want something better and different ask us for FERDELLE—No other store in Rushville has these goods.
